Capgemini announces agreement with Hexion for digital transformation of key operations

New York, NY – July 13, 2020 – Capgemini has signed a seven-year agreement with Hexion, to digitally transform its business to be more resilient, with greater operational agility and an ability to drive long-term, sustainable growth. Hexion serves the global adhesive, coatings, composites and industrial markets through a broad range of thermoset technologies, specialty products and technical support. As part of the agreement, Capgemini will collaborate with Hexion to unlock value and drive innovation through a digital transformation of its global operations for procurement, finance and information technology.

"We are continuously adapting our organization to changes in the market, while remaining focused on long-term growth," said George F. Knight, Acting Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, Hexion. "By partnering with Capgemini, we intend to create a best-in-class organization that focuses on gaining efficiencies and process improvements by leveraging automation and state-of-the-art technology for delivery service while also reducing costs."

Capgemini will leverage its broad portfolio of digital, cloud, IT infrastructure, cybersecurity and business operations solutions to help Hexion gain operational agility and increase competitiveness in its end-markets.

"We are excited to partner with Hexion to help it achieve its bold business and IT goals," said Randy Cozzens, Executive Vice President and Director of the Energy, Utilities and Chemicals Market Unit at Capgemini in North America. "Capgemini is uniquely positioned to support Hexion as it prepares for future opportunities and sustained growth while unlocking the immediate value of business transformation."
