Capgemini wins 2022 Business Intelligence Group Innovation award for the 2nd consecutive year

Paris, May 23 2022 – Capgemini today announced that it has been named a winner in the 2022 BIG Innovation Awards presented by the Business Intelligence Group, for the 2nd time. Capgemini was recognized for its unique end-to-end Digital Customer Invoicing Solution, a project management and invoicing solution that simplifies the order-to-cash (O2C) process and enables process efficiency for Capgemini's finance teams.

The Digital Customer Invoicing Solution not only eliminates the need for manual processes at Capgemini, leading to increased productivity, but also provides a unique employee digital experience to its teams. It leads to standardization of processes, reduces errors and drives greater compliance.

David Lumley, Global Head of the Finance and Accounting Practice for Business Services at Capgemini, said, "As organizations focus on building agile, resilient teams, they are looking for intelligent digital solutions that can drive efficiency and minimize manual processes. At Capgemini, we are committed to empowering our teams with technological solutions that drive innovation, automate manual processes, and increase collaboration, enabling them to focus on more urgent tasks. We are delighted to receive this award for our digital customer invoicing solution, it further underlines our commitment to create frictionless operations."

"Innovation is driving growth in the global economy and we are thrilled to be honoring Capgemini as they are one of the organizations leading these charges," said Maria Jimenez, Chief Operating Officer of the Business Intelligence Group. "Capgemini's solution was chosen for being an innovative and automated tool that leads to increased operational efficiency and produces best quality data results when processing third party invoices".

The Business Intelligence Group annual business awards program recognizes organizations, products, and people that are bringing new ideas to life in innovative ways.

About Business Intelligence Group
The Business Intelligence Group was founded with the mission of recognizing true talent and superior performance in the business world. Unlike other industry award programs, these programs are judged by business executives having experience and knowledge. The organization's proprietary and unique scoring system selectively measures performance across multiple business domains and then rewards those companies whose achievements stand above those of their peers.
