Capgemini to further develop and maintain the Dutch national pensions digital dashboard service

Paris, January 25, 2023 – Capgemini today announced the signing of a five-year contract with Stichting Pensioenregister, an independent foundation in the Netherlands that was founded in 2008 and has the statutory duty to provide citizens with insight into and an overview of their pension. As part of the new agreement, Capgemini will be responsible for application support, maintenance, and further development of the Dutch national pensions digital dashboard service platform, Mijnpensioenoverzicht.nl, helping Stichting Pensioenregister to scale their digital transformation initiatives, become more agile and provide a seamless experience to citizens.

Mijnpensioenoverzicht.nl has evolved into a well-known and valued website in the Netherlands and in the coming years, the ambition is to further develop the platform and improve the user experience for citizens. Stichting Pensioenregister needed a business and technology partner who could support its goals of modernizing and developing the platform to enable innovative features like mobile applications, enhancing the overall digital experience.

Stefan Taubert, Directeur Bestuursbureau Stichting Pensioenregister said, "Stichting Pensioenregister was looking for a new technology partner with high quality standards, knowledge of the pension market and an innovative approach. During the selection process, we found that Capgemini met our requirements, with great expertise within the pension domain and awareness of the potential around Mijnpensioenoverzicht.nl. This was an important motivation for us to go ahead with Capgemini."

Stefan van Alen, Head of Financial Services, Benelux at Capgemini said, "We are proud to collaborate with Stichting Pensioenregister on this project to deliver real value and improved convenience for Dutch pension holders. As an organization, we believe in digital inclusion and this project further reaffirms this commitment by providing relevant, clear, and transparent insights to Dutch citizens for a financially secure old age. With our deep expertise in the pensions sector as well as cloud platforms, and a focus on innovation, we're confident that we will drive value for Stichting Pensioenregister."
